

Future Insurability Benefit for Life and Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Insurance Form

Information sheet

When to use this form

Use this form to increase your insurance cover under the Future Insurability benefit for an Elevate Superannuation insurance plan issued by N.M. Superannuation Pty Ltd.

What you need to tell us

When you apply for insurance

When you apply for insurance, the insurer conducts a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation

! Read this if you are applying for insurance as the policy owner, if you will be an insured person under a policy owned by someone else, or if you will be an insured person under a superannuation plan.

Your legal duty

When you apply for insurance and up until your application is accepted by the insurer, there is a legal Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation to the insurer.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

You have the same duty if anything changes, or you remember more information, while we're processing your application.

If you want to change your insurance cover at any time, extend it or reinstate it, you'll also have the same Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation to the insurer at that time.

You are responsible for all answers given, even if someone assists you with your application.

We may later investigate the answers given in your application, including at the time of a claim.

Where a policy owned by one person covers the life of another person, it's important that the other person does not make a misrepresentation when providing information to the insurer. If the other person does make a misrepresentation, then it may be treated as a failure by the owner of the policy in their Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation. Therefore, you must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation when giving us information whether you're the owner of the policy or an insured person under it.

If you do not meet your legal duty

If you do not meet your Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

If there is a failure to comply with the Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to the insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the insurer in the position it would have been in if the duty had been met. Therefore, if the person who answers our questions does not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, it can have serious consequences for your insurance, such as those explained below:

- we may treat the contract (or your cover) as if it never existed.

- we may reduce the amount you've been insured for – to reflect the premium you've been paying. There is a link between the premium you pay and your level of cover. If you fail to tell us something, your premiums may have been too low. The insurer may reduce the amount you've been insured for, taking into account the premium you would have had to pay if you'd told us everything you should have. For Death cover the insurer can only reduce the amount you've been insured for within three years of your cover starting.
- we may vary your cover – to take into account the information you didn't tell us and put the insurer in the same position as it would've been if you'd told us. Variations could mean, for example, that waiting periods, exclusions or premiums may be different. The insurer can't make variations to Death cover.

Your total insurance cover forms one insurance contract. If you don't meet your legal duty, the insurer may treat your different types of cover as separate contracts when it takes action to address this.

Whether the insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether the person who answered our questions took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances. This includes how clear and specific our questions were and how clear the information we provided on the duty was;
- what the insurer would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether the insurer would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will let you know our reasons and the information we rely on and give you an opportunity to provide an explanation.

If we decide to exercise one of these remedies, we will advise you of our decision and the process to have this reviewed or make a complaint if you disagree with our decision.

Guidance for answering our questions

When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question that we ask you.
- Do not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it or check with us.
- Review your application carefully. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and make corrections if needed) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

After your cover starts

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately.

Future Insurability benefit

Ensuring you have enough insurance is important.

The Future Insurability benefit allows you to increase your sum insured without the need for providing any further evidence of the insured person's health (when one or more specified personal or business event occurs).

What types of cover does the Future Insurability benefit apply to?

You can use the Future Insurability benefit to increase your:

- Life insurance.
- Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) insurance.

How much will the additional insurance cost?

The cost of your insurance is based on your:

- type and level of cover
- age
- gender
- occupation, and
- smoking status.

Please contact your financial adviser for a quote on how much your new level of cover will be.

How to apply to increase your insurance cover with Future Insurability?

The following documents are needed to apply:

- a completed Future Insurability Benefit for Life and Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) insurance form
- required certified evidence that one of the personal or business events has occurred
- an insurance quote.

Ex-NMLA insurance plans commencing prior to 25 July 2005

For further information on specified personal or business events covered, terms and conditions and the eligibility requirements that apply please refer to your policy document and/or product disclosure statement (PDS).

For Elevate insurance plans commencing after 17 August 2009 and ex-NMLA insurance plans commencing after 25 July 2005

The Future insurability benefit allows you to increase your sum insured once every 12 months without the need for providing any further evidence of the insured person's health when one or more specified personal or business events occurs.

How much additional cover can I apply for?

The maximum amount of increase for any one event will be limited to the lowest of:

- 25% of the sum insured
- $200,000
- where the increase relates to a mortgage, the amount of the mortgage or the increase to the mortgage, or
- where the increase relates to a promotion or commencement of a new employment arrangement, 10 times the salary increase.

The maximum amount of increase in the sum insured in total over the life of the plan for each cover type is the original sum insured, up to a maximum of $1,000,000.

Please refer to the table on the following page for a list of eligible events and examples of the documentary evidence required.

Up to what age can I use this feature?

You can increase cover under the Future Insurability benefit up to age 55.

Are there any restrictions on using this feature?

You won't be able to increase the sum insured under this benefit if at the time of your request the insured person:

- has previously been accepted by us with a medical loading greater than 50% under a plan held with us.
- is currently entitled to make, or has made, a claim for a terminal illness, TPD or trauma benefit under a plan held with us.
- has a life insurance plan that was purchased as a result of exercising the 12-month Life buy back feature, Life buy back – TPD option, Life buy back – Trauma option, or if the Double TPD option has been exercised.
- has a trauma insurance plan that was purchased as a result of exercising the Life buy back – Trauma option, Trauma reinstatement option, or if the Double trauma option has been exercised.

Any revised terms applicable to your plan will also apply to increases exercised under this benefit.

For the first six months from the date of the increase, we'll only pay the amount of the increased benefit in the event of:

- accidental death,
- accidental total and permanent disability (caused by violent, accidental, external, and visible means), or
- the insured person suffering an accidental trauma condition (refer to your PDS for the definition of each trauma condition).

 Please refer to the events covered and examples of evidence table for Elevate plans on the next page.

5. Declaration and signatures

I acknowledge and declare that:

- I have read and understood the section entitled 'The Duty to Take Reasonable Care Not to Make a Misrepresentation' in the information sheet, and understand that any cover issued by the insurer will be based on the answers I provide to questions in this form and any other questions that are asked before the insurer advises me in writing that it has issued a policy. I understand that if the questions are not answered truthfully, accurately and completely the insurance I have applied for may be avoided (treated as if it never existed) or altered and if I have made a claim under the insurance it may not be payable or be reduced. If someone has assisted me to complete this form (such as my financial adviser) I have checked every answer (and if necessary made corrections) before this form is submitted, and
- I have read the privacy information in the information sheet and I agree to the various uses and exchanges of my personal information as set out in that section.
- I acknowledge that any special conditions, loadings or exclusions on my superannuation or insurance plan will continue to apply.
- My application for increase, and any increase, will not be effective until Resolution Life accepts this application and Resolution Life issues a revised schedule.
- I understand that, Resolution Life and N.M. Superannuation Pty Ltd are companies within the Resolution Life Group, and that they may freely share, disclose, and collect any information they have on my health, medical history, pastimes, work history, or anything else that either of them considers to be relevant to assessing or underwriting any insurance cover or claim. I understand that, under Government Privacy legislation, I may access a copy of this information from Resolution Life.

5. Declaration and signatures continued

- I consent to notices relating to my application to be sent to the email address or the mobile number provided by me and I acknowledge that my personal and sensitive information may be sent to that email address.
- I consent to Resolution Life disclosing or discussing with my financial adviser any matter relevant to the assessment of my application for insurance including financial, medical, and other matters, whether disclosed in this form, obtained from third parties (eg doctors, accountants) or otherwise discovered as part of the assessment process.
- I am not entitled to make (nor have I made) a terminal illness, total and permanent disability or trauma claim under a policy held with Resolution Life.
- If the premiums on my plan are currently paid via a direct debit or a partial rollover facility arrangement, I authorise Resolution Life to deduct the new premium amount.
