

Early release of superannuation benefits: Severe financial hardship

Information sheet

When to use this form

Use this form to apply for early release of your superannuation benefits on the grounds of severe financial hardship.

Important: Please read this information sheet before you decide on any further action. If you wish to proceed, the following information should help you to provide the correct details so your request can be assessed without delay.

Early release due to severe financial hardship

Generally, fund members are unable to withdraw from their superannuation account until they have retired after reaching their 'preservation age' (see table below). However, the fund trustee can approve the early withdrawal of superannuation if you're suffering severe financial hardship.

Preservation ages

Date of birth	Preservation age
Before 1 July 1960	55
1 July 1960 – 30 June 1961	56
1 July 1961 – 30 June 1962	57
1 July 1962 – 30 June 1963	58
1 July 1963 – 30 June 1964	59
From 1 July 1964	60

How to apply

To be granted an early release of your superannuation benefit on the grounds of severe financial hardship, the Trustee must be satisfied that you are unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses.

Resolution Life can release:

- a portion of your superannuation benefit if you satisfy the criteria for Claim type 1 (see next column)
- any amount (up to your total balance) if you satisfy the criteria for Claim type 2 (see next column).

Claim type 1

To qualify, you must:

- be aged under your preservation age plus 39 weeks, and
- have been in receipt of an eligible Commonwealth income support payment for a period of no less than 26 continuous weeks, and
- be able to demonstrate severe financial hardship.

If you're eligible to request the release of funds due to severe financial hardship and your request is approved, the following rules apply:

- The gross minimum amount which can be released is no less than $1,000 (or the balance of your account if it's less than $1,000).
- The gross maximum amount which can be released is $10,000.
- You can only have money released (from your account or from multiple accounts within the same Trust) for financial hardship once in any 12 month period.
- Any amount released to you is after any applicable fees and taxes are deducted. This means these charges and taxes will be deducted from the amount you request.

Claim type 2

To qualify, you must:

- be over your preservation age plus 39 weeks
- have been in receipt of an eligible Commonwealth income support payment for a period of no less than 39 cumulative weeks since reaching preservation age.

If you satisfy all of the above conditions, you don't have to demonstrate financial hardship—you'll only need to declare that you're not gainfully employed at the time of application.

Taxation

Resolution Life may be required to deduct tax from your financial hardship benefit. The tax payable will depend on the components of the benefit being released and your age.

If you're age 60 or over, no tax is payable on your financial hardship benefit.

Generally, if you're over your preservation age and have not previously accessed your super, you're also not likely to pay any tax.

You will need to include copies of your latest credit card or loan statements with your application.

- that the loan is immediately due and payable
- evidence (eg bank statements, paid bills) that you did receive the loan from family or friends
- that the loan was needed to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses.

General bills

Expenses for utilities (eg gas, water, electricity, phone) will generally be approved provided that the funds are to cover amounts overdue/due now at the date of the application. Therefore, you must include copies of the most recent and due bills (ie dated within the last three months).

We may also approve release for expenses such as rates or body corporate expenses provided we receive sufficient documentary evidence of these being due and payable at the time of application.

Insurance

We will generally release funds for payment of outstanding insurance premiums (house, car, contents, medical) provided we receive sufficient documentary evidence of these being overdue/due now at the time of application.

Motor vehicle

We can only approve payments for repairs to a motor vehicle where they are required to make the vehicle roadworthy. If you are claiming on these grounds you will need to provide a quote from an accredited service provider along with documentary evidence that the repairs are

Funds for the purchase of a motor vehicle will not be approved except in exceptional circumstances.

Again, you will need to provide sufficient documentary evidence.

Medical expenses

We may release funds for outstanding medical bills which are overdue/due now, where documentary evidence is provided.

If you have substantial medical costs, you should consider contacting the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) as they may be able to direct the release of funds in excess of $10,000 on compassionate grounds.

Mortgage payments

We may only release funds to cover monthly repayments and any overdue balance which is immediately payable.

If you are in danger of defaulting on your mortgage, you should consider contacting the ATO as they may be able to direct the release of funds in excess of $10,000 on compassionate grounds.

Household goods

We can't release funds to cover the cost of household items unless they are essential (eg a refrigerator). We will not release funds to cover discretionary expenses such as TVs, stereos and computers.

Compassionate grounds

If you're not eligible to access your superannuation benefit on the grounds of severe financial hardship, you may consider applying to the ATO on compassionate grounds.

Benefits may be released on compassionate grounds in limited circumstances—these include:

- medical treatment (or transport) for you or your dependant where:
  - the treatment is necessary for a life-threatening illness or injury, and/or
  - to alleviate acute or chronic physical pain, and/or
  - to alleviate acute or chronic mental disturbance.

Note: Where such treatment is not readily available through the public health system.

For further information on accessing your super on compassionate grounds, visit the ATO website at ato.gov.au.

Tax File Number (TFN) notification

We are required to tell you the following details before you provide your TFN for your superannuation products.

The trustee can collect your TFN under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 which will be used for lawful purposes. You are under no obligation to provide your TFN, either now or later, and it is not an offence to not quote your TFN.

However if you don't provide your TFN:

- An additional amount of tax at the highest rate may apply on the withdrawal amount.
- No-TFN tax may be refunded if the TFN is supplied within four years of the end of the financial year in which the contribution is made. Any refund will be added to your superannuation benefit and will be subject to the usual cashing and taxing rules.
- In the future when we need to pay benefits to you, it may be more difficult for us to locate or amalgamate all the superannuation benefits you are entitled to.

If you do provide your TFN, we will treat it as confidential and use it for purposes, including:

- to find your superannuation benefits where other information is insufficient
- to ensure you can contribute to your account
- to calculate tax on any superannuation benefits you may be entitled to
- providing your TFN to the Commissioner of Taxation if we are paying unclaimed money, if you receive a benefit, or for the purpose of the Lost Members' Register.

If you wish to transfer benefits to another superannuation fund or a Retirement Savings Account (RSA), we would provide your TFN to the Trustee of that fund or the RSA provider. If you do not want us to do this, you can notify us in writing at the time.

Note: These purposes may change in the future as a result of further legislative changes. More information about the use of Tax File Numbers for superannuation can be obtained from the ATO hotline on 131 020.

Personal contribution tax deduction

If you wish to claim a tax deduction for personal contributions made in the current or previous financial year, you can provide the information in the personal contributions tax deduction section of the attached form.

If you've made personal contributions, you should check whether you are eligible to claim a tax deduction. If you don't claim a tax deduction at the time of making a withdrawal, we may not be able to accept a future request.

For example:

We cannot accept a request where your contributions have been used to start a pension or if you have insufficient personal contributions remaining in your account to cover the amount you are claiming.

Note: If you don't check if you're eligible to claim a tax deduction, or you don't have enough assessable income, the ATO could deny your deduction and this may mean you exceed your contribution limit(s). Where this is the case, if you have withdrawn any of your benefit or started a pension, you may not be able to reduce the amount you told us you were claiming. This may mean you have to pay additional tax.

Resolution Life privacy statement

The privacy of your personal information is important to us.

The Resolution Life Privacy Policy provides more information about how we manage and protect your personal information. It sets out how you can access and correct your information, how you may complain about a breach of privacy, and our process for resolving privacyrelated enquiries and complaints.

Your identification may need to be verified before we can approve your request. We may decide to delay or refuse any request or transaction, including suspending a withdrawal application if we are concerned that there may be a breach of our legal obligations.
