For a company, this includes any beneficial owners controlling more than 25% of the shares in the company. For a Trust, this includes Trustees, settlors or beneficiaries. For a partnership this includes any partners. Tax residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

If 'Yes', please provide the details of these individuals below and complete a separate Individual Identification Form for each controlling person (unless already provided as beneficial owner).
