

Quick Reference Guide – Annuities

What is an annuity?

A secure investment providing guaranteed regular income, for a fixed term. Individuals can invest in an annuity with money from superannuation, or with personal savings.

Features and benefits

- Capital guaranteed
- Income payments are guaranteed for the term of your choice
- Tax-free income payments for most people over 60 who invest with super money
- No ongoing management fees
- Minimum investment of $10,000
- Choice of CPI and fixed indexed payments for 6+ year terms
- Income payments can be made monthly, quarterly, half yearly or yearly
- Flexibility in how the investment amount is paid during the term of the annuity (100% - 0%)
- May be eligible for tax exemption for foreign residents, depending on country of residence

Who are annuities suitable for?

Annuities are generally suitable for:

- Retirees who want a guaranteed income for a fixed term
- Retirees looking to maximise their age pension eligibility
- Investors looking for an alternative to a term deposit
- Conservative investors seeking secure income streams with a capital guarantee
- Overseas investors looking to provide a regular income stream for family members (e.g. children studying in Australia)

How long are the investment terms?

Investment terms available:

- Short term (1-5 years)
- Long term (6-30 years)
