Appropriateness explanation

Broadly, the target market comprises those wanting a simple tax effective investment, saving for a future goal (such as families saving for children or investing for retirement) or distribution of wealth. As the product pays tax on earnings at the company tax rate of 30%, offers an option to invest for children, allows access to capital at any time and flexibility in the nomination of beneficiaries; it is therefore likely to meet the needs, or go towards meeting the needs, of those in the target market.

3. Product design description

Investment Growth Bonds combine the features of a managed fund and a life insurance policy, offering security and tax effective investing and has been designed to suit a range of customer needs.

- Has no additional tax after 10 years (with policyholders benefiting from a 30% rebate where earnings are withdrawn within 10 years).
- No contribution caps in the initial year of investment and allows for additional annual contributions (subject to the 125% rule).
- · Access to capital at any time.
- Offers a choice of investment options.
- Allows beneficiaries to be nominated outside a policyholder's estate to provide certainty for estate planning.
- Offers a Death Benefit and Investment Option Guarantees to protect capital from market risk (subject to terms and conditions).

4. How this product is to be distributed

Distribution channels

This product is designed to be distributed through the following channels:

- Distribution under a personal advice model Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) holders authorised by Resolution Life to distribute the product and provide consumers with personal advice in relation to the product.
- Distribution directly by Resolution Life through completion of an application form.

Distribution conditions

This product must only be distributed under the following circumstances:

Distribution under personal advice:

Distributors must ensure:

- the product is distributed under an appropriate AFSL and authorised by Resolution Life to distribute the product per the terms of a Distribution Agreement
- they provide the customer personal financial advice in relation to the product
- they provide the customer with a copy of the current PDS prior to making a decision to purchase the product, and
- the customer meets the product's age, residency and eligibility requirements.

Customers that obtain personal advice are more likely to be in the target market for this product because advisers have a duty to act in their best interest when providing personal advice.

Distribution directly by Resolution Life:

- · to customers who meet the age, residency, identity and other eligibility requirements and
- to customers that have been provided with the PDS, completed the application and tax file number declaration forms in full, and other items outlined in the application checklist.

Customers are more likely to be in the target market if they have completed the items outlined in the application checklist and as part of the application process, the Issuer has checked that they are not an excluded class of customer.
